BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Ms. Tinah Kadhau

Board Member | Governance, Legal Compliance & Risk

Board Member

Africa Governance & Civic Innovation Hub

Ms. Tinah Kadhau is a Board Member of the Africa Governance and Civic Innovation Hub (AGCIH), where she provides independent governance oversight across the institution's legal compliance, internal governance architecture, and organisational risk management functions.

In her board capacity, Ms. Kadhau brings critical legal and institutional acuity to AGCIH's governance framework. She ensures that the institution's policies, decision-making structures, and operational conduct remain aligned with applicable legal standards and sound ethical principles — a mandate that is foundational to AGCIH's credibility as an independent governance institution.

Ms. Kadhau plays a central role in strengthening AGCIH's internal controls, supporting the development of clear and accountable decision-making processes, and ensuring that the institution's risk posture is actively managed and proportionate to its mandate. Her oversight extends to the governance of AGCIH's institutional instruments, including its policies, frameworks, and compliance obligations.

Her appointment reflects AGCIH's commitment to building a board that brings substantive professional depth to the governance of emerging technology policy in Africa — ensuring that the institution is not only technically credible but legally sound and institutionally robust.
